

Vision

Our vision is to create a nature sanctuary where everyone feels loved for who they really are, and what they can offer the world.

The three pillars:

- Nature
- Art
- Consciousness

Mission

CLL's mission is to be a house to welcome people during a more or less long stay during which they can be supported in their path of physical, emotional and spiritual healing, development and realization.

Purpose :

- Healing (Cleanse)
- Development (Nurture)
- Realization (Support)

Guidelines

This project is aimed at

- artists
- therapists
- hypersensitive
- truth seekers
- nature lovers
- committed idealists

We are looking for people already invested in a therapeutic or artistic path who want to engage in a collective project.

Each member must carry the desire to devote themselves to a personal and collective path of healing through the awakening of consciousness.

This project opposes any consumption of alcohol, drugs, hallucinogenic plants or meat.

Rather, it encourages mental clarity, awareness, natural spiritual connection, and wholesome nourishment without the need to kill any living thing.

TimeLine

2023 - Talk about the project, forge connections, start meeting on Zoom, and get to know each other.

Share our life paths and our unique vision of the project.

2024 - Meet physically, develop and refine the vision of the collective project, as well as making adjustments depending on the team.

Find between 6 to 12 people ready to commit together over the long term and carry the core of the project.

2025 - When the project and the starting team are solid, we can start the physical and financial plan.

2026 to 2030 - We have found the land that will carry the project, and we can proceed with the purchase and begin the construction of buildings and gardens while maintaining healthy links in our team.

2030 - The project is fully born, and ready to open up to the public and offer its services to people in need!
